

A secure, dedicated wireless link for business data.

Point to Point

Point to Point is a dedicated wireless link which allows businesses to connect their branches without exposing valuable business data directly on the Internet. A Point to Point link consists of at least two links, one at each branch.

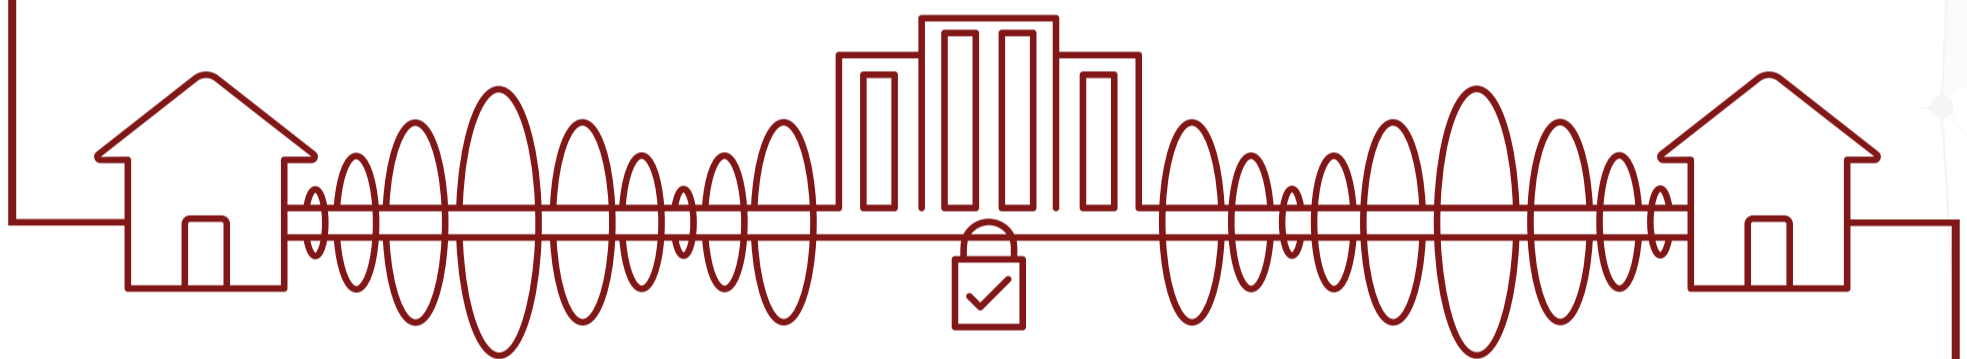

- Secure, dedicated wireless link for business data
- You can use a single Fibre via Wireless Internet connection to stream Internet to all other branches
- Jenny Point to Point is an open connection within the company's network and allows the business user to manage the data stream between offices
- Various line speeds allows for better link management
- Quick upgrading of line speeds
- Easy business expansion
- Single monthly billing for various branches

www.Jenny.co.za
087 170 0000

A secure, dedicated wireless link for business data.

Point to Point

Point to Point is a dedicated wireless link which allows businesses to connect their branches without exposing valuable business data directly on the Internet. A Point to Point link consists of at least two links, one at each branch.

- Secure, dedicated wireless link for business data
- You can use a single Fibre via Wireless Internet connection to stream Internet to all other branches
- Jenny Point to Point is an open connection within the company's network and allows the business user to manage the data stream between offices
- Various line speeds allows for better link management
- Quick upgrading of line speeds
- Easy business expansion
- Single monthly billing for various branches

www.Jenny.co.za
087 170 0000